

FUNCTIONS

Intelligence School

The Chief, Intelligence School, under the general direction of the Director, shall:

1. Develop, coordinate and conduct:
 - a. Intermediate and advanced courses designed to instruct Agency personnel in the specific skills and methods involved in the production of intelligence material.
 - b. Courses to provide Agency personnel a general orientation in world Communism, its theory, structures, organization, strategy, tactics and operation.
 - c. Courses to improve employee efficiency in reading, writing and speaking.
2. Provide, in conjunction with the Assessment and Evaluation Staff, for the necessary testing and evaluation of students, courses and training results.